“ My name is Linda and I live in Lewiston, MN. where I also work with my good friend Tammey, granddaughter of Agnes. While I have never met Agnes, I feel like I have known her a long time. I have heard many stories and laughed with Tammey as she would talk so often about her special Grandmother. Agnes was a big part of Tammey's life and together they shared a special bond. Agnes would wait every night for Tammey's calls and look so forward to her many visits throughout the year to go grocery shopping, do her banking or just to get out of the house. Tammey spoke of Grandma Agnes so fondly, telling me what a funny, spirited, and charming woman she was. A woman who was strong in her convictions. So strong that when her hearing was going and her day's grew darker due to her failing eyesight, she still insisted on taking care of herself in her own home. Some called it stubborn, I'd call it brave and determined. So like I said, I've never met her but through the many stories that Tammey actively told of her and their times together, I feel that the world has lost a great woman and heaven has gained a special soul. RIP Agnes, you will be missed by all those who knew and loved you.
