“ I can't believe it was 66 years ago that I was a flower girl at Uncle Bernard and Aunt Biginia's wedding. Where did the time go. Uncle Bernard was the best. He let us "city kids" wreck havoc on his farm doing all the stupid things kids do and never punished us. I remember he had an old wall phone with a party-line that was really fun. We had lots of family picnics at Uncle Bernard and Aunt Virginia's house, and food just always tasted better. And, oh the wonderful corn we picked right out of the field. I didn't get to see them as much after I moved from Austin, but I always tried to see them whenever I got back to town. I especially loved all the beautiful wood working projects Uncle Bernard made after he moved to Rose Creek. Uncle Bernard was such a craftsman. But more than that, he was a wonderful loving, caring uncle. He will truly be missed. My condolences to Jeanne, Dianne, Monica and David and families. You are in my thoughts and prayers. Love you, Karol Meyer Cook

Bernard had a SPECIAL welcoming committee when he arrived in heaven he was warmly greeted by his wife whom he missed terribly and his mom and dad and all his sisters and brothers and son in law and friends who passed before him. He is in a better place no more pain. God be with you and your families today as you say your goodbyes I will be there in spirit sorry I could not make the trip.
