

Brian Keith Miller

April 5, 1966 - April 4, 2019

Brian K. Miller, age 52, of Austin

Brian was born on April 5, 1966 in Austin and passed away at St. Mary's hospital in Rochester on Thursday, April 4, 2019.

If you didn't have the chance to meet Brian he would have been recognized by his deep blue eyes and his kind soul.

Brian was an avid dart player, lover of music, and collected guitars and stereo equipment. If you ever visited his home, you would have known he was there just by the blasting sounds of rock music. He was an amazing cook, whether it was during his employment years where he worked as a cook at various local restaurants and bars or just cooking for family and friends. He used his recipes throughout life to bring family and friends closer together.

His fondest memories included spending time with his father, Butch driving out on the country roads and taking his children camping in their younger years.

For the ones who had the pleasure of meeting Brian, they could describe him as funny, positive, compassionate, and a giving family man, in which they had immediately developed a lifelong friendship with.

Brian had 5 children & 15 grandchildren whom he was dedicated to and loved so much, making sure that each and every one of them had their own special bond with him.

Brian is survived by his mother, Diane Miller; sister, Brenda (Bruce) Oakland; daughters, Crista Green, Nicole Green, Candus Green, Amber (Carlos) Bautista; son, Codie Miller; grandchildren, Jacob, Casey, Conner, Caitlyn, Abigail, Amelia, Noah, Sophia, Daisy, Teighlynn, Carson, Riley, Jack, Sebastian, Stephanie; nephew, Nick Miller; and Adam Green whom he considered as a son; many uncles, aunts and cousins.

Brian is preceded in death by his father Donald "Butch" Miller; grandparents, Newman & Myrtle Tesdahl; uncle, Bill Miller.

Our hearts rest knowing he was finally reunited with the love of his life, Angela Underdahl in heaven.

Love you Frank #Shameless

A Celebration of Life for Brian will be held 3 pm on Friday at Mayer Funeral Home.

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to all of Brian's family at this time of sorrow. I wish I could take all the pain away, and help you all heal from this tragic loss of a truly amazing man. And a great friend of mine. I will miss you Brian and some of the crap u used to do, the pranks you would pull on people and me included, and I never knew what was gonna come out of your mouth next, or sometimes I did but didn't think before I stuck my foot in my mouth, also all the great things u did for me, and the amazing talks we used to have. U had a heart of GOLD. Oh the memories of you that I'm gonna cherish forever. I'm gonna think back on them and laugh or cry depending on the memory. We had some awesome times dude!! I am truly blessed to have known you and to be able to have called you my friend. I'm truly gonna miss you. Say Hello to Angie for me and give her a hug. Until we meet again someday!! RIP my friend!!

“ Brian was an amazing man and my best friend. He was kind, caring, funny. He would go so far out of his way to help anybody out, friend or not.. if he saw you needed help he was right there with open arms. He loved his family more then u could imagine. His kids and grandkids were his world.
Brian took me and his nephew and a few other people to the Kid Rock concert 7 or 8 years ago. He had a limo take us all there. It was do much fun. He sat in the bar and had a few drinks while everyone was at the concert. He said that he had seen kid rock 3 other times and that this was for us to enjoy. I could go on and on about memories I have of Brian. But I think I'm going to stop here. I love you Brian Miller. U will never be forgotten. U are forever in my
