“ Bob was a serious farmer. You would be hard pressed to find a more honest hard worker. Bob rented and share cropped land that my father (Jay M. Johnson) owned north of Rose Creek, MN. They did business with one another on and off for a number of years. I moved away from the area but on those occasions when I would come home to visit if I ran into Bob he always spoke to you as if he had just seen you yesterday. Bob was consistent. What you saw is what you got...always! He was a good neighbor and very well thought of by my family and myself. May Bob rest in the Lords arms forever!

“ One of my favorite memories which the family still remembers. I went over to see Bob and Joann and visited with the cows. Well at the time they had electric fence and I was small and didn't know any better. I grabbed the fence and shocked myself. Crying back to my grandpa and Bob and Joann, we all laughed about for years.

“ Late to the knowledge of his death, may I simply say I knew Robert as an older schoolmate in our small town, shy & awkward I remember, but just as quiet and steady. I'm happy to have experienced a time in life when those of us in that community were the totality of the world we met, and pleased to have crossed paths with him in the spring of life..
